Military OneSource

MILITARY
ONESOURCE

Ph: (800)
342-9647

Military OneSource is your 24/7 connection to information, answers and support to help you reach your goals, overcome challenges and thrive. As a member of our military family, you are eligible to use this Department of Defense-funded program anytime, anywhere. Turn to Military OneSource for tax services, spouse employment help, webinars and online training, relocation and deployment tools, and much more. Learn about some of the ways we serve you.

inTransition

inTransition
OPERATIONS • EDUCATION • RECREATION

Ph: (800)
424-7877

inTransition is a free, confidential program that offers specialized coaching and assistance for active-duty service members, National Guard members, reservists, veterans and retirees who need access to mental health care under certain criteria.

Army Wellness Center/Stress

Ph: (573)
596-9677

Army Wellness Centers (AWC) provide programs and services that improve and sustain health, performance, and readiness of the Total Army delivered by highly trained health professionals. The AWCs are an actionable platform delivering evidence based programs that improve individual and unit readiness, utilizing mobile advanced testing technology, providing immediate feedback to improve Soldier readiness delivered by highly trained health & human performance professionals.

Behavioral Health

Ph: (573)
596-0522

When our Soldiers return home, most (along with their family members) will experience a readjustment period and a successful home transition. Some will need short or long-term counseling to assist in their transition. Please explore this Web site especially for Soldiers, Families, and friends. Learn how to adjust, cope, get ready to deploy, transition to return home, and access other information and helping resources.

SUDCC

Ph: (573)
596-0522

The Clinical services for the Army Substance Abuse Program are provided by the SUDCC. SUDCC is an outpatient substance abuse treatment service available to all active duty personnel. The mission of SUDCC is to support military readiness by providing effective treatment strategies that will enable individuals to develop abstinence, enhance quality of life and promote healthy lifestyles.

Military and Family Life Counselors

Ph: (573)
596-0212

The Military and Family Life Counseling Program supports service members, their families and survivors with non-medical counseling worldwide. Trained to work with the military community, military and family life counselors deliver valuable face-to-face counseling services, briefings and presentations to the military community both on and off the installation.

Army Substance Abuse Program

Ph: (573)
596-0119

The Army Substance Abuse Program mission is to strengthen the overall fitness and effectiveness of the Army's workforce, to conserve manpower and enhance the combat readiness of Soldiers.

GLWACH Emergency Department

Ph: (573)
596-0456

GLWACH's Department of Emergency Medicine provides quality, compassionate care to critically ill and injured military beneficiaries. As GLWACHs only 24-7 patient care portal, we are here when you need us. We specialize in caring for the full range of urgent and life-threatening medical, surgical, obstetric, pediatric, and psychiatric conditions.

Suicide Prevention

Ph: (800)
273-8255

As an integral component of Army's Ready and Resilient Campaign (R2C), ASPP improves readiness of the Army through the development and enhancement of Army Suicide Prevention Program policies, training, data collection and analysis, and strategic communications designed to minimize suicide behavior; thereby preserving mission effectiveness through individual readiness and resilience for Soldiers, Army Civilians and Family members.

Military Crisis Line

Ph: (800)
273-8255

The Military Crisis Line, text-messaging service, and online chat provide free VA support for all Service members, including members of the National Guard and Reserve, and all Veterans, even if they are not registered with VA or enrolled in VA health care.

DFMWR / Child & Youth Services

School Liaison Office

Child & Youth Services

Child & Youth Services (CYS) recognizes the challenges of our Soldiers and their Families. By offering quality programs for children, youth and students, CYS supports the Army Family by reducing the conflict between mission readiness and parental responsibility. Whenever you need it and wherever you are, CYS is prepared to make life better for Army Families.

Child Development Center

We provide quality full-time childcare for children 6 weeks through 5 years of age.

School Age Center

SAC provides affordable before-school and after-school care in a quality program that meets the needs of the youth and their Families. In addition to before and after school care, separate SAC camps are operated during fall, winter and spring breaks. During the summer months, SAC operates a full day camp.

Middle School Teen Center

MST provides after-school activities for youth from 6th grade -12th grade. This is a free program and busing is provided from the Waynesville School District. Program is open until 1900 M-F. During Spring/Summer break a Camp is provided for youth to attend.

Family Child Care

Family Child Care (FCC) offers a warm, nurturing Family environment for children 4 weeks to 12 years of age.
