GARRISON SAFETY

For Awareness

Missouri winters can lead to hazardous driving conditions. Here are some Safety Tips:

- ✓ Avoid unnecessary travel.
- ✓ Check MoDOT's Traveler Info Map and FLW SNAIR report for road conditions.
- ✓ Give snowplows room to do their job.
- ✓ Stay at least 200 feet behind a snowplow.
- ✓ Allow extra travel time and expect delays.

Drive based on conditions, NOT the posted speed limit. Slow down, increase following distance.

Get ready for the freeze ... Get started today!

- ✓ Create an emergency supply kit for your home/car.
- ✓ Know our area's risk for winter storms.
- ✓ Pay attention to weather reports and warnings of freezing weather and winter storms ...

Community Interest

What to Do if you Get Stranded:

- ✓ Staying in your vehicle when stranded
- ✓ Have a winter car emergency kit.

Winter car emergency kits include (not limited to):

- ✓ Blanket
- ✓ Flashlight
- ✓ Snacks (Water)
- ✓ Jumper cables
- ✓ First Aid Kit
- ✓ Extra Winter Clothes

Weather ...

- ✓ Sign up for alerts on your Cell Phone
 - ✓ KY3 Weather, Weather Underground, National Weather Service, etc.
- ✓ Rain, snow, fog, ice, and wet leaves are only a few dangers you may encounter on the road over the next few months.
- ✓ Roads can become slippery and visibility decreases in poor conditions, making pedestrians, bicycles, animals, and road signs hard to see.

For updated weather information, contact
EOC/IOC 573-563-4141
for up to date information.

GLWACH

Inclement Weather Closure Service Impact and Procedures for Patients

1. Safety for our Community, Patients and Staff is priority. We sustain the below critical services, regardless of FLW weather safety conditions/status:
 - A. Emergency And Emergency Operative Services (24/7)
 - B. Acute Minor Illness Clinic (AMIC) (1000-2130)
 - C. Inpatient and Ancillary Clinical Services such (Laboratory, Radiology, Inpatient Pharmacy, Respiratory Therapy, and Meals)
 - D. Mission Essential Support Services (43rd Reception, Chem Defense Trng)
2. In weather-related, delayed start situations, routine clinic or service openings will be delayed by the specified timeframe.
 - A. 2hr delay: Soldier Readiness Processing (SRP) opens at 0900 vice 0700, and Leonard Wood Medical Home (LWMH) opens at 0930 vice 0730.
 - B. Outpatient clinic appointments during weather closures will be re-scheduled, virtually supported, or otherwise worked in to degree we are able; for delays, appointments at or after start time will be honored.
 - C. If an early closure effects your appt, the service will call to resolve virtually or re-schedule at the earliest, convenient opportunity.
 - D. Scheduled surgeries will resume when the post opens.

GLWACH

Best Practices to Enhance Personal Awareness and Safety

1) Monitor the Below Public Sources and Tools for Post Status

- A. GLWACH Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/GLWACH/>
- B. Fort Leonard Wood Snow and Ice Removal (SNAIR) Hotline: (573) 563-4141.
- C. Fort Leonard Wood Web Page: www.wood.army.mil
- D. KJEL FM 103.7 (only local radio station staffed 24 hours)
- E. Digital Garrison App under announcements section

Honor Fort Leonard Wood closure guidance and traffic restrictions to maximize your safety; this time lets maintenance teams time prepare roads and parking lots critical to resuming safe operations.

Adjust to road conditions, slow down; give yourself plenty of time to arrive alive.

BOOT CAMPAIGN SANTA BOOTS IDEAL RECIPIENT

Boot Campaign's Santa Boots Program drives patriotism and engages the community in helping meet service members' needs, striving to make the holiday season brighter by delivering specially curated gift boxes to veteran and active duty military families nationwide.

The primary goal of Boot Campaign's Santa Boots program is to provide basic necessities for military families by alleviating some financial burden during the holiday season along with providing families with a joy-filled holiday by fulfilling individual wishes of each family member.

Service Qualifications

- Veteran (all branches and eras of service)
- Active Duty (all pay grades and branches of service)
- Gold/White Star families
- Family Members (to include, but not limited to: spouse/partner, children living within the household, extended family members claimed as dependents of service member or veteran)
- Discharge status: all with the exception of Dishonorable (must be DD-214 verified)

Target Audience

Families that:

- have endured an unexpected financial hardship during the past year(s)
- have or are currently experiencing a major medical concern in the immediate family
- are experiencing financial hardship due to recently transitioning from the military or change of duty station

Program Goals

- Provide support for groceries, warm clothing, and other basic necessities.
- Restore value to the veteran's life so that he/she can continue to fulfill his/her servant's heart and mission.
- Validation that he/she is deserving of help without shame/guilt.
- Rediscovering or embracing a sense of pride, accomplishment, and empowerment.
- Reconnecting and restoring families.
- Reducing stress and financial burden.
